Harbour regulations required departing ships to supply customs officials with lists of crew and passengers. This dataset is a transcript of the first year of register entries for ships departing Hobart (3 May-31 December 1817). Later years (1818-1833) will be added in the future.

The listing gives the name of the person, the departing ship name and date, port of departure, port of destination and status as passenger or crew. It contains 367 entries and with two cross referenced names added totals 369 entries.
